LAMP; LOVE & MENTAL PEACE

A second session on spirituality and mental health will be conducted at St Mary's Parish, in the Gathering Space on Thursday March, 3rd, from 7.30pm until 9.00pm. You don't have to have attended the first session to join in this next one. The focus on mental ill health, taken up by St Mary's Parish, is being led by the St Mary's Parish Group Love, Acceptance and Mental Peace (LAMP). At this session Sr Ros Cairns MSC, will present the session and include a conversation with Rachel Garofolo, who will share her lived experience.

Ros is a member of St Mary's Parish and has worked in mental health for 27 years initially as pastoral care worker and coordinator with experience in hospital and community settings and then in management. As Manager of Mental Health within the Healthcare Chaplaincy Council of Victoria, Inc. Ros's responsibilities involved leadership, consultation, and education in the strategic development of spirituality, chaplaincy, and pastoral care in Victorian Mental Healthcare Services. Ros is semi-retired and maintains a particular interest in the relationship between spirituality and mental wellbeing and offers education and training in this area, in communities and at the University of Divinity. Her background is varied having worked in the areas of education, liturgy, counselling, and community development work in PNG. The Retreat in Daily Life – can be a life changing experience. What is your image of God? Does this image engage you in an intimate and loving relationship with God, or does God seem distant or even irrelevant to your life? Do you feel grounded in your life, or confused and wonder if your faith and spirituality can make a difference? Do you desire to deepen your relationship with God? Or, are you perhaps just curious? The Ignatian Spiritual Exercises are a life changing retreat and offer rich prayer material, different methods of discernment and the opportunity to discover the ways in which God is calling you at this particular time of your life.

The retreat will run from the 8th of March until early October, with retreatants having material with which to pray, at home, each day and time to gather as a group for sharing each week and regular one to one time with a spiritual director. The venue for the information and enquiry afternoon which is on March 8th at 1.00pm, as well as the future group sessions, is the Gathering Space of the church. The Ignatian spiritual directors leading this retreat are Terry Fanning and Jacinta Bright. Cost – by donation.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

NEW CHANGES TO CODE OF CONDUCT DECLARATION SIGNING

In December last year, the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct Declaration was updated. Volunteers within a Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne (CAM) parish/entity are now required to re-sign the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct Declaration every three (3) years. The Code of Conduct and the Declaration have been merged into one document. Please note: the regularity in signing the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct Declaration for clergy and employees remains the same, requiring both cohorts to re-sign the declaration annually.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SACRED HEART & ST PETER'S

Sacred Heart Safeguarding Team update: some members met on Tuesday morning and discussed the DC Emergency Procedure Plan, which is now on the Church Notice Board. St Peter's plan is to be addressed.

SYNOD 2023: You may know that Pope Francis has asked all Catholics to participate in a global consultation. He is seeking feedback for what dream we have for the Church. Many of you participated in the Plenary discussions in 2018 and that was an Australian initiative which is still ongoing. Will you come and join in an afternoon of reflection so that we can respond to the Pope's call? The focus is Community, Participation, Mission and we really need to raise our voices here. At present there have only been just over 250 responses Australia-wide, and the project was launched in November. Unfortunately for us in the Southern Hemisphere, everything stops from mid-December when we are focussed on preparing for Christmas and then January is a very quiet month as people go on holidays. Sr Joan Chittester, a Benedictine sister says this of the need for all of us to speak up: "Don't be afraid to speak. Be afraid of what will happen to the whole truth if you don't." Please come along to the Gathering Space on either Tuesday, 1st March from 2:00-4:00 pm or Wednesday, 2nd March from 2:00-4:00 pm.

Please RSVP to Jacinta.Bright@cam.org.au. If you are not able to join us, you might like to send your response directly to Rome.

The process is clearly outlined: <https://melbournecatholic.org/synodality>. The deadline has been extended and all submissions can now be received until Sunday, 13 March 2022

First Reading Sir 27:4-7

Do not praise someone before they have spoken.

In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind,
so too the defects of a man appear in his talk.

The kiln tests the work of the potter,
the test of a man is in his conversation.
The orchard where the tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man's words betray what he feels.

Do not praise a man before he has spoken,
since this is the test of men.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 91:2-3. 13-16. R. See v.2

(R.) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

1. It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. (R.)
2. The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. (R.)
3. Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 15:54-58

Victory has been given to us through Jesus Christ.

When this perishable nature has put on imperishability, and when this mortal nature has put on immortality, then the words of scripture will come true: Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? Now the sting of death is sin, and sin gets its power from the Law. So let us thank God for giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Never give in then, my dear brothers, never admit defeat; keep on working at the Lord's work always, knowing that, in the Lord, you cannot be labouring in vain.

Gospel Acclamation Phil 2:15-16

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 6:39-45

A person speaks from what is in his heart.

Jesus told a parable to his disciples, 'Can one blind man guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit? The disciple is not superior to his teacher; the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye," when you cannot see the plank in your own? Hypocrite! Take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.

'There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit. For every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles. A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man's words flow out of what fills his heart.'

Reflection by Greg Sunter

In our post-modern world, the lesson of the hypocrite seeking to remove the speck from their neighbour's eye before removing the log from their own has at times been taken too far and too literally. We are often confronted with a minimalist notion that nobody can be corrected or criticised because one person's opinion is just as good as the next person's. In this view, there is no room for universal truths; no room for authority; no room for an over-arching view of the world or a meta-narrative – an underlying 'big picture' story for life.

On the surface, the idea that one person's opinion is as valid as any other's seems very democratic and sociable. However, it is fundamentally not true. Someone who has spent a lifetime studying and practising in a particular field of endeavour cannot be lightly dismissed as 'that's just your opinion'. Yet, all too often, such learned knowledge and experience is given the same weight as ill-informed and sometimes mischievous opinion – frequently in the name of 'balanced' discussion.

For some people immersed in the post-modern culture this wash of opinion dressed up as fact is not only confusing but sometimes dangerous. Social norms and even laws can be seen as just another opinion that differs from my own. The opinions of friends and complete strangers on the internet or social networks are held with the same level of legitimacy as established sources of social, moral, legal and religious authority. Whilst it is proper to question established authority and require accountability and justification, the absence of universal truths and meta-narratives lead us back to the proverb that begins today's gospel: the blind leading the blind.
