Library Update

Thanks to the Mouratidis family for donating quality books for our students.

Huge shout out to all those families who supported our Lamont's Book Fair. We achieved great results & it was wonderful to see excited students and parents enjoying their new books.

Our local libraries often run programs throughout the school holidays. Take advantage of these and borrow books from your local libraries too!

