

SIGNS OF DYSLEXIA

(OFTEN BUT NOT ALWAYS)

THE PRESCHOOL YEARS

- Delayed speech and/or language development
- Difficulty learning new vocabulary and concepts, such as colours and numbers
- Difficulty developing rhyming skills and learning nursery rhymes
- Difficulties following instructions
- Mispronouncing words
- Difficulty associating speech sounds with letters
- Difficulty learning and remembering the names of letters
- Difficulty matching words that begin with the same sound.
- Family members with a diagnosis of dyslexia or other learning difficulties like ADHD

For more information www.codereadnetwork.org

SIGNS OF DYSLEXIA

(OFTEN BUT NOT ALWAYS)

THE PRIMARY SCHOOL YEARS

- Poor understanding of letter sound links
- Slow and inaccurate word recognition
- Difficulty decoding unfamiliar words
- Struggles to read, write and spell
- Sometimes struggles to find the right word (when speaking)
- Has reading avoidance strategies or school refusal
- Difficulty following instructions
- Struggles to remember names, dates, months or sequences
- Family members with a diagnosis of dyslexia or other learning difficulties like ADHD

For more information www.codereadnetwork.org

SIGNS OF DYSLEXIA

(OFTEN BUT NOT ALWAYS)

HIGH SCHOOL & ADULT YEARS

- Slow and laboured reading
- Struggles to comprehend written information
- Suffers from anxiety related to school or schoolwork
- Takes much more time to complete assignments or exams than others
- Struggles to remember names, dates, months or sequences
- Chooses not to read for pleasure
- Has a history of literacy difficulties in school
- Struggles to fill out forms or applications
- Limited working memory
- Disorganisation and difficulties with planning
- Family members with a diagnosis of dyslexia or other learning difficulties like ADHD

For more information www.codereadnetwork.org