Viewbank College Sustainability Festival 2025

Expressions of Interest

The SLOW Festival* is Viewbank College's first biennial sustainability event, taking place on Saturday, November 29, 2025.

Open to everyone, this year's festival will spotlight the fast fashion and textile industries, exploring their harmful environmental impacts and the consequences for future generations.

Through a variety of speakers, workshops, stalls, activities, and competitions, participants will discover practical solutions and learn how to make more sustainable choices - while having fun.

The Viewbank College Sustainability Team is now seeking Expressions of Interest from local schools, businesses, and families interested in participating. While the main focus is on fashion and textiles, we also welcome projects and initiatives from other areas of environmental sustainability.

Please scan the QR code to complete the Expression of Interest Form.
