

1. Introduction

Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools Ltd (MACS) is a company limited by guarantee established in 2021 by the Archbishop of the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne to assume the governance and operation of MACS schools across the Archdiocese of Melbourne. MACS subsequently established Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Specialist Schools Ltd (MACSS) to provide educational services to children with diverse needs and Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools Early Years Education (MACSEYE) to provide early years care and education services.

The Statement of Mission in the MACS Constitution, and the constitutions of its subsidiaries, MACSS and MACSEYE, sets out the Archbishop's expectations of Catholic schooling in the Archdiocese and provides an important context and grounding for the company and the direction which the MACS Board must always observe in the pursuit of the company's objects.

The Board must ensure that all policies and procedures concerning the operations of MACS, and its subsidiaries are consistent with the Statement of Mission and company objects, as well as any directions issued by the Archbishop from time to time.

2. Background

MACS schools, school boarding premises operated by MACS schools and specialist schools operated by MACS subsidiary, Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Specialist Schools (MACSS) (in this policy, collectively MACS) is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APP) contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and if required by contractual obligations, the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Information Privacy Principles contained within that Act. MACS and its schools are also bound by the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic) (Health Records Act).

3. Purpose

This policy sets out how MACS manages the personal information and the rights of Parents and Students in relation to personal information held about them, including how to make a complaint and MACS deals with complaints.

4. Scope

This policy applies to all personal and sensitive information (including health information) handled by MACS.

5. Principles

The following principles apply to the handling of personal information by MACS:

- personal information is managed in an open and transparent way
- only personal and / or sensitive information that is reasonably necessary for MACS' functions or activities is collected
- fair and lawful means is used to collect personal information
- consent to collect sensitive information is obtained unless specified exemptions apply
- reasonable steps are taken to protect the personal information MACS holds from misuse, interference and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure
- personal information is only used or disclosed for the primary purpose of collection unless an exception applies

6. Why MACS collects personal information

Why and how MACS collect personal information

- 6.1. MACS will only collect personal, sensitive (including health) information, if the information is reasonably necessary for one or more of its functions or activities.

11. Associated legislation and schemes

11.1. MACS is an information sharing entity (ISE) in accordance with the Child Wellbeing and Safety (Information Sharing) Amendment Regulations 2020 (Vic.). This legislation broadens the circumstances in which MACS may share information to support the wellbeing and safety of children and students.

- 11.2. MACS maintains appropriate confidentiality when it provides information under legislated information sharing schemes, being Child Information Sharing Scheme (CISS) or Family Violence Information Sharing Scheme (FVISS)) or under the Terrorism (Community Protection) Act 2003 (Vic.)
- 11.3. Under the Notifiable Data Breaches (NDB) scheme, MACS must inform the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner and affected individuals of any data breach likely to result in serious harm to individuals whose personal information contained in the breach.

12. How we store personal information

Storage of Personal information

- 12.1. MACS may store Personal information in hard copy or electronically. MACS will store Personal information until no longer required, including where the law requires MACS to retain Personal information.

Security of Personal information

- 12.2. MACS have reasonable steps in place to ensure the protection of Personal information that it holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and access controls to electronic data.
- 12.3. These steps include:
 - restricting access to information on MACS systems and local databases to a 'need to know' basis with access levels allocated to staff based on their roles and responsibilities
 - ensuring all Staff are aware that they are not to reveal or share personal passwords
 - ensuring storage of hard copy files containing personal and health information in lockable cabinets in lockable rooms. MACS restricts access to these files on a need to know basis
 - implementing physical security measures around MACS premises to prevent break-ins
 - implementing ICT security systems, policies and procedures designed to protect information storage on computer networks
 - implementing human resource policies and procedures including a code of conduct, and policies for email and internet usage, information and records management designed to ensure that staff follow correct protocols when managing personal information
 - undertaking due diligence with respect to third party providers, including cloud service providers, who may have access to personal information to ensure as far as practicable that they are compliant with the APP or a similar privacy regime.

Sending and storing information overseas

- 12.4. MACS may disclose Personal information about an individual to overseas recipients in certain circumstances where it is necessary to perform its functions and activities. For example, to facilitate a school student tour or similar, or in connection with any third-party cloud service provider. MACS may provide some limited Personal information to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services and provide technical support (e.g., services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications).
- 12.5. MACS may store Personal information in the cloud. This means information may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia. Examples include Google, which provides GAFE including Gmail, and stores and processes limited personal information for that purpose.
- 12.6. MACS makes reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the security of any Personal information collected, processed and stored outside Australia, in connection with any cloud and third-party services. MACS will take reasonable steps to ensure cloud service providers are hosted in Australia or otherwise in countries with substantially similar protections as the APP.

- 12.7. For further information about locations where a school stores personal information using cloud service providers, please contact the principal of the school.

13. Access and correction of personal information

Access to and correction of personal information

- 13.1. Under the Privacy Act and the Health Records Act, an individual has the right to seek access to and or correction of any Personal information which MACS holds about them. There are some exceptions to access and correction rights which are set out in the applicable Act. For general inquiries about access and correction refer to the contact details below.
- 13.2. To make a request to access, update or correct any Personal information that a MACS school holds about you or your child, please contact the principal by email, post or telephone in the first instance. Refer to the school's website for contact details or refer to the Student Collection Notice.
- 13.3. Individuals may seek access to Personal information held by MACS by contacting the MACS Privacy Officer. There may be occasions, however, when the Privacy Officer may refuse this access request. For example, where the release of the information would have an unreasonable effect on the privacy of others; where the release of the information may result in a breach of the school's duty of care to the student, or in the case of employees, access to the employee record.
- 13.4. MACS may require verification of your identity and for you to specify which information you require. MACS may charge a reasonable fee for giving you access to personal information, but there is no charge for making a request or to correct Personal information. If the information sought is extensive, MACS will advise the likely cost in advance.
- 13.5. If MACS refuses a request, MACS will provide a written notice explaining the reasons for the refusal (unless, given the grounds for refusal, it would be unreasonable to provide reasons) and how to complain.
- 13.6. Specific Collection Notices also set out how an individual may access or correct their Personal information.

Mature minors

- 13.7. In certain circumstances, principal of the MACS school may assess a student as a "Mature Minor" in relation to their capacity to make decisions about consent, access or correction.
- 13.8. When requested by a student, the principal may, at their discretion, grant a student access to information held by the school about them or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their Parents. This would normally only occur when the maturity of the student and /or the student's personal circumstances warrant it. For further information regarding mature minor assessment, please consult MACS Legal.

14. Inquiries and complaints

- 14.1. For further information about how MACS manages the personal information it holds or if you wish to complain that you believe a breach of privacy has occurred, please contact the principal by email, post or telephone or the MACS Privacy Officer at:

MACS Privacy Officer

16. Definitions

Definitions for standard terms used in this Policy can be found in the Glossary of Terms.

Health information

Health information is a subset of sensitive information. It is information or opinion about the health (including illness, disability or injury) of an individual, an individual's expressed wishes about the future provision of health services to the individual or a health service provided, or to be provided, to an individual. Health information also includes personal information collected during the provision of a health service. Health information is regulated in Victoria under the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic).

Mature minor

A mature minor is an individual in a MACS school who is assessed by the principal of that school to be a mature minor in all or some circumstances.

Personal information

Information or an opinion about an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable. It does not matter whether the information or opinion is true or not. It does not matter whether the information or opinion is recorded or documented, or not.

Sensitive information

Sensitive information is a type of personal information that is given extra protection and must be treated with additional care. It includes information or opinion about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices, criminal record, membership of a political association, professional or trade association, or trade union. It also includes health information and biometric information.

Student

Student means a person who is enrolled at or attends a MACS school.

Victorian student number (VSN)

A randomly generated 9-digit number assigned to all Victorian students as a unique identifier. Every student under 25 years of age is given a VSN when they first enrol at a Victorian education or training provider. The VSN allows education and training providers to record and monitor the enrolment of students in Victorian and to track student progress through their school age years and beyond, should they continue into vocational education and training (VET). The register of VSN is managed by the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority (VCAA).
